CptS 483-07 Mobile Application Development in iOS
Homework 1
Due: January 19, 2016 (11:59pm)

General Instructions: Put the entire app directory into one zip file and submit as an attachment under Content → Homework 1 for this course on the Blackboard Learn system by the above deadline. Note that you may submit multiple times, but only the most recent entry submitted before the above deadline will be graded.

1. Create an iOS app called HelloWorld that displays "Hello, world. This is <name>.", where <name> is your first name. Below this message you should display an image of you. The message and image should be centered horizontally and appropriately positioned vertically, regardless of device type or orientation, using auto-layout constraints.
